BEYOND THE BOX
Art Contest

Our book drops are in need of a makeover
Our book drops are in need of a makeover

We are asking for community help to decorate the book return boxes on Glenoaks Blvd., in front of the Burbank Central Library. Submit your unique design and help us brighten up the library.

Please note that the contest is only for creating the illustration that will be on the outside of the book drop. We will take care of the painting, and use your winning design for the inspiration. Submissions must be original artwork and cannot include any copyrighted images.

Beyond the Box is open to all ages. The deadline to submit your applications and design template is Monday, July 31, 2017. Winning artists will be notified by September 2017.

Applications can be submitted electronically to burbankpubliclibrary@burbankca.gov or turned in at any Burbank Public Library:

Design becomes sole property of the City of Burbank.

Please note that the contest is only for a design concept of the book drops. No painting is involved.

Deadline: Monday, July 31, 2017

to burbankpubliclibrary@burbank.ca.gov or turn in at any Burbank Public Library location.

Templates can also be downloaded at burbanklibrary.com, under Check It Out. Applications can be submitted electronically and contain various seams, doors and handles. Consult the inside of this brochure for more information on our 3 boxes.

The selection committee will use this submission along with the application to select the winning designs. This is a typical book drop box design representing the four sides and top (not to scale). Use our template to illustrate your color rendering.
